

Lloyd E. McIntyre II

Lloyd is married with two children and five grandchildren. He graduated from the Kanawha County Technical High School and attended the University of Charleston where he undertook studies in Aviation Technology.

Lloyd's business ventures include being the Vice President and owner of Electronic Materials Corporation and Mountain Electronics for 18 years. He then began work for State Electric Supply Company establishing the electronics and data / communications division.

He is also an Advisory Board member for the Ben Franklin Career and Technical Center for the last twenty years and has also served for many years at West Virginia State University.

President and Vice President of the Antique Radio Club of America covering a ten year period. He is also the founder of the Museum of Radio & Technology in Huntington, WV and is President Emeritus.

He is currently a consultant to State Electric Supply Company in the areas of marketing, logistics and long term planning. In addition he is currently the Vice President of Valley Woodworkers of West Virginia, Inc. He is also the editor or writer for various newsletters.

Lloyd is a Vice President and member of the Executive Board for the West Virginia Motorcar Festival, Inc., the parent company of the Charleston Boulevard Rod Run and Doo Wop.

His hobbies are the preservation of man's greatest invention, the Radio. His other hobbies are woodworking, a member of the A. C. Gilbert Heritage Society and has a collection of one of America's Premier toy collections. He is also a member of the Chrysler 300 Club International, Inc 1955-1965 Series.

He loves to travel with his wife and explore the history of this great country.